

GRAND 4th of JULY CELEBRATION and Barbecue

At MARSHALL, MISSOURI, JULY 4th 1912.

Program

9:00 a. m. Band Concert,
9:15 a. m., Grand Parade; 500
Children.
9:30 a. m., Scenes from "Captain of Plymouth," in full costume.
Colonial Pictures, by D. A. R.
Music—National Airs, by a Chorus of 500 Children.
11:00 a. m., Patriotic Address, by
Hon. Paul Prosser, of Fayette, Mo., candidate for Congress.
12:00 m., Barbecue.
1:45 p. m., Music—Quartette and Chorus.

EVERYTHING FREE!

Program

2:00 p. m. Speech,—Hon. Wm. S.
Cowherd, of Kansas City, Candidate for Governor of Missouri.
3:00 p. m., Music.
Short Address, by State Candidates, including Hon. John P.
Gordon, candidate for State
Auditor. Hon. A. R. Boone,
Candidate for Lt. Governor, and others.

Ball Game at Fair Grounds—FREE

RACES and GAMES INTER-SPERSED

EVERYBODY COME!

Local Items

Floyd Jones and bride of Lathrop are the guests of A. G. Jones' family.

J. S. VanStone was here from Malta Bend Saturday and called at the Republican office.

Walter Crane and Ike Hardin, of Sharon, have each purchased a new five-passenger auto.

Sam McRoberts, vice-president of the Gate City Bank of New York, visited relatives around Malta Bend last week.

Gillespie and daughter, Miss Mary, were here from Nelson Friday, the latter to take a teacher's examination.

Charles Steele and family came up in their machine Sunday from Slater to make Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Fisher a brief visit.

Mrs. Mort Doan and daughter, Mrs. Tom Lewis spent several days in Houston this week with grand ma Doan, who is quite feeble.

Charles Dow and wife and the Misses Holtman drove up from Booneville in the former's machine Sunday to call on the Misses Fink.

Miss Elizabeth Koch, of Mt. Leonard returned home Wednesday after several weeks visit with relatives and friends at Montrose and Sedalia.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Scrutcheff and daughter, Helen, are visiting at Minneapolis, Minn., in the hope of benefitting Mrs. Scrutcheff's health.

Little Miss Elizabeth Carr who has been visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Barns left for home in Kansas City Saturday.

Mrs. J. F. Carr and Master Gail Lloyd who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Barns left Saturday to visit her brother, J. E. Williams near Blosser.

Harry Terrell is here from Eagle Lake, Texas, to spend a month with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Terrell. He reports their potato crop this year a splendid success.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Duggins entertained Wednesday evening of last week in honor of the bride and groom to be, Geo. Duggins and Miss Mary Agnes McCoy, at their handsome home on E. Arrow.

Lorenz Rasse and bride returned from a delightful trip to Denver, Pike's Peak and other Colorado points Saturday morning. They will be at the home of the former's parents on Eastwood until they go to housekeeping.

According to this paper last week Sherman Houston attended the National Republican convention, but he didn't. It was generally reported that he had gone and we took it as a fact and when he told us he didn't go we forgot to correct the mistake.

Lee Williams of Blue Lick was on our streets one afternoon last week with a very fine pair of draft mares, twin sisters, 4 years old one bay and one brown, with a magnificent pair of suckling fillies—light bay, closely matched and marked with blazed faces and white hind ankles.

Mrs. H. H. Downing and E. R. Pemberton entertained Friday afternoon at the Downing home in honor of Mrs. Halley Pelot, Mrs. P. A. Baker and Miss Frances Wood. There was a large attendance and an enjoyable time. Vawters orchestra furnished music and added to the pleasures of the occasion.

John A. Fray, of Armstrong, and his bride, were guests of the former's relatives here this week. J. J. Kirkpatrick and Dr. B. M. Spotts. The young couple was married at the home of the bride in Parsons, Kas., on June 26th. Her name was Miss Louise Tift, daughter of the Methodist pastor there. The groom is a former student of Missouri Valley College.

At a special convocation held in the Masonic temple here on last Tuesday and Wednesday a class of thirteen had the Royal Arch Degree conferred upon them, as follows: County Collector Joseph H. Auer, Dr. W. H. Black, Louis Blosser, Frank L. Brown, Ben Berg, Wilbur B. Hupp, Harry H. Miller, David Byers, Lucius Thompson, John M. Penick, Marcellus Minor, Archie VanAnglen, C. W. Schooley.

Academy Commencement

One of the important school events were the commencement exercises at the Academy Notre Dame de Sion Friday afternoon. The editor acknowledges an invitation to be present, but was out of town and unable to attend. We are informed the program was a splendid success as usual.

The many friends of the school were out in goodly numbers and were not disappointed in the program.

Father Griffin of Shackelford delivered the class address and Father O'Neil of this city presented the diplomas and medals, which were announced by Prosecuting Attorney Meschede.

The following is the list of diplomas, medals and premiums and to whom awarded:

Medals and diplomas for graduation Miss Amanda Van Wirt Keys, Miss Margaret McDonough, Miss Regina Margaret Donahoe, Miss Bridget Elizabeth Barr, Miss Marguerite Teresa Kellet.

Gold medal for Christian Doctrine donated by Rev. Father O'Neil, merited by Margaret McDonough, Marion Alexander, Sadie King, Doreline Delany, awarded by lot to Sadie King.

Gold medal for history, donated by the Knights of Columbus, awarded to Amanda Keys.

Gold medal for English Classics donated by Mrs. W. K. James of St. Joseph, awarded to Regina Donahoe.

Gold medal for French, donated by the Alumnae of the Academy Notre Dame de Sion, Paris, France, merited by Margaret McDonough.

Marion Alexander, Fanabel Doyle, Roseline Dulany, awarded by lot to Margaret McDonough.

Gold medal for excellence donated by Missouri Valley Mercantile Co., merited by Bridget Barr, Rose Barr, Gladys Le Baron; awarded by lot to Gladys Le Baron.

Gold medal for Art, donated by Mr. J. J. Robertson of Mt. Leonard, Mo., awarded to Margaret Cecilia Kellet.

Gold medal for Latin, donated by J. G. Goodwin of Marshall merited by Amanda Keys, Marion Alexander, Fanabel Doyle, Roseline Dulany, Helen Darby, awarded to Fanabel Doyle.

Gold medal for Observance of Rule, donated by some ladies of Marshall, friends of the convent, merited by Amanda Keys, Bridget Barr, Margaret McDonough, Fanabel Doyle, Sadie King, Rose Barr, Frances Mitchell, Virginia Schiebert, Clara Weiss; awarded by lot to Bridget Barr.

Gold medal for highest average in the 11th grade donated by Mr. D. E. Hammond and June Summers, Marshall, awarded to Marion Alexander.

Gold medal for highest average in the 10th grade, donated by a friend, awarded to Roseline Dulany.

Gold medal for highest average in 8th grade, donated by Joseph Hamill of Shackelford, Mo., awarded to Agnes Brandecker.

Prize for good conduct and devotedness awarded to Rose Barr and Ogda McGrew.

Prize for attendance awarded to Frances Mitchell.

Prize for Ancient History, Clara Weiss.

Prize for English, Hortense Ordway.

Prize for Algebra, 1st year, Virginia Schiebert.

Prize for Latin Virginia Cullen.

Prize for Needlework, Mary Gillespie.

Prize for Christian Doctrine, Laura Schiebert.

Prize for Bible History, Annie Monahan.

Prize for Arithmetic, Mary Cullen and Helen Ordway.

Prize for History, Marie Oswald, Ruth Cullen and Helen Prior.

Prize for Physiology, Ruth Dillon.

Prize for Reading and Grammar Frances Weiss.

Prize for Spelling and Grammar Cecilia Weiss.

Prize for Composition, Minnie Schiebert and Catherine Monaghan.

Prize for Reading, Jessie Herndon.

Prize for Geography, Christine Markes.

Prize for Needlework, Katie King.

Prize for Diligence, Mabel Oswald.

Prize for Attendance, Maggie Miller and Mary Mitchell.

Prize for deportment, Mildred Heilman.

Primary Grades

Prize for diligence, Irene Harling and Clarinda Burchard.

Prize for Reading and Arithmetic, Catherine Buckner and Marie Louise Huston.

Prize for Spelling, Lily McCann and Regina Donahoe.

Prize for Language, Julia Stedem.

Prize for Reading, Grace Langan and Core Lee Thomas.

Prize for Arithmetic, Jane Hunter.

Prize for Catechism, Mabel Bryant.

Prize for sewing, Luella Armstrong.

Prize for drawing, Ina May Gamache and Lorine Hayob.

Souvenir given Onja White, Bell Donahoe, Angeline Schiebert and Marguerite Kellet.

HARDEMAN

Mrs. Clayton Noland and children and mother, Mrs. A. Gabriel were guests a few days of the latter's sister, Mrs. Tom Davis.

Earnest Odell and S. J. Gibson were at the county seat Wednesday.

Miss Pearl Niemeler returned to her home in Marshall Thursday after a three weeks visit with her brothers and sisters.

Lon Webb and family spent last Wednesday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Webb.

Mrs. Dick and Earl Moore and little daughter were calling on L. Gibson and family Wednesday. Edgar Fenwick and wife were in Nelson Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Gibson and Tom Gibson were visiting Clark Swinney and family Sunday.

O. C. Brown and family were calling on Everett Townsend and wife Sunday evening.

A. W. Howell and family were shopping in Marshall Thursday.

Robert Schlemer was in Blackwater Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Abb Ballard, were trading in Napton Thursday.

Little Marshall Thorp returned to his home near Nelson Wednesday after a three weeks visit with his aunt, Mrs. Julius Reith.

Miss Ruth Davis is spending her vacation with her parents.

Kate Swinney was a guest of Mrs. Anna Reith Friday.

John Schler of Pilot Grove spent Tuesday night with his brother, Lewis and wife.

Anna Dickson was the dinner guest of Misses Kate and Mary Swinney Friday.

Felix Baker and wife were calling on Henry Hasemeier and family Sunday.

Julius Reith and George Niemeler were trading in Slater Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Odell were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. Jim Odell Friday.

Mrs. Henry Niemeler and daughter, Mrs. Will Eastham and daughter attended the exercises at the convent in Marshall Friday.

P. J. Hillen was a passenger to Marshall Saturday.

Frank Brockway purchased him a fine Rambler auto last week and he is enjoying riding.

Card of Thanks.

Mr. and Mrs. Kiso wish to thank their friends and neighbors, who so kindly assisted them during the brief and recent illness of their baby girl.

Use MAUD S and JUMBO FLOUR